The high money rate exerted a strong influence on the market to-day, as it did yesterday, giving encouragement to the bearish element. At the opening of the market several call loans were made at 15 per cent. One firm alone placed $1,000,000 at that ngure. Very soon tae rate advanced to It per cent, and there were a number of renewals and new hans at that rate. The attitude of the secretary of the Treasury toward the menetary situation continues to be an absorbing topic in Wall street. Brokers who have private wires to Washington posted bulletins throughout the day, most of them of this tenor:

"Secretary Shaw as vet sees no reason for interfering in the New York money situation."

One of the Washington dispatches said that President Roosevelt approved Secretary Shaw as tuttude, and had advised the Secretary not to interfere unless legitimate business interests demanded rellef, it is generally conceded that the national banks will be permitted to dip into their required reserves to a moderate extent while this money stringency laste.
